

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Intellectual property rights aims to stimulate a dynamic, vibrant and balanced IPR system in India which can foster creativity and innovation and thereby promote entrepreneurship, enhance development, enhance access to healthcare, food security; enhance environmental protection. IPR has been released with a vision that envisages an India where creativity and innovation are stimulated by IP for the benefit of all. It also promotes advancements in science and technology ,arts and culture etc.

