Event Details

Students Gathering (3:10 PM – 3:25 PM)

The program began with the gathering of students in front of the Main Building. The NSS volunteers ensured that participants maintained discipline and silence as they assembled. The atmosphere was somber, reflecting the gravity of the occasion.

Rally (3:25 PM – 3:40 PM)

A peaceful rally was organized to symbolize unity and patriotism. Led by NSS volunteers, students walked in complete silence, holding banners and placards with messages of peace and condolences. At specific intervals, slogans such as "We Stand Together for Peace" and "In Memory of the Innocent Lives Lost" were raised respectfully, echoing the collective grief and resolve of the participants.

Candle Lighting Ceremony (3:40 PM – 3:50 PM)

The rally concluded with a poignant candle lighting ceremony. Dr. M. Ashok , the Principal, along with NSS coordinators and student representatives, lit candles in memory of the departed souls. Each flame symbolized hope, love, and a commitment to peace. The sight of countless candles glowing in unison created a powerful visual reminder of unity and resilience.

Principal's Speech (3:50 PM – 3:53 PM)

Dr. M. Ashok addressed the gathering, expressing deep sorrow over the tragic incident. He emphasized the importance of standing together as a nation during such trying times and urged everyone to uphold the values of peace, tolerance, and humanity. His words resonated deeply with the audience, reinforcing the message of solidarity.

Two Minutes of Silence (3:53 PM – 3:55 PM)

A solemn two-minute silence was observed in honor of the victims. The entire gathering stood still, offering prayers for the souls of the departed and their grieving families. The silence was a moment of collective reflection and respect.

Vote of Thanks (3:55 PM – 3:57 PM)

An NSS volunteer delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants, faculty members, and dignitaries for their presence and support. Special acknowledgment was given to the Principal, Dr. M. Ashok, for his leadership and compassion during the event.

National Anthem (3:57 PM – 4:00 PM)

The program concluded with the rendition of the National Anthem , sung by all participants with pride and reverence. The anthem served as a reminder of the unity and strength of the nation in the face of adversity.

Conclusion

The Condolence Meeting organized by the NSS Unit of Malla Reddy College of Engineering was a deeply moving and meaningful event. It brought together the college community in a spirit of empathy, solidarity, and respect. Through speeches, symbolic gestures like the candle lighting, and moments of silence, the program paid tribute to the victims of the Pahalgam terror attack and reaffirmed the commitment to peace and harmony.

As stewards of humanity, it is our responsibility to stand united against acts of violence and to work collectively toward a world where peace prevails.

Together, we mourn the loss, honor the departed, and strive for a brighter, more peaceful future.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the NSS coordinator, expressing gratitude to all participants, dignitaries, and volunteers for their active involvement and contributions to making the program a success.
