Event Report: MRCE NSS UNIT - VISIT TO DISABLED ORPHANS

Date: 15 November 2025

Organized by: NSS Unit, Malla Reddy College of Engineering (MRCE)

Introduction: The Spirit of Seva

The NSS Unit of Malla Reddy College of Engineering organized a compassionate visit to a home for disabled orphans. The primary objective was to provide emotional support, engage in community service, and distribute essential supplies to the residents. This initiative aligns with the NSS motto, "Not Me But You," fostering empathy and social responsibility among the student volunteers.

Event Activities and Engagement

Mobilization and Preparation

The event began at the college campus where volunteers gathered to organize the donated items. The NSS team prepared essential relief packages, including food items and clothing, ensuring everything was ready for distribution.

Distribution of Materials and Refreshments

Upon arrival at the venue, the volunteers engaged in a systematic distribution process. The items provided included:

- Fresh Produce: Bags of apples and bananas were distributed to ensure nutritional support.
- Essential Clothing: Large quantities of white T-shirts and other apparel were handed out to the residents.
- Snacks: Packaged snacks were shared to bring joy to the children during the interactive session.

Interactive Sessions

Beyond material support, the volunteers spent quality time interacting with the children. These interactions were designed to provide companionship and boost the morale of the residents through conversation and shared activities.

Leadership and Administration

The success of this outreach program was made possible through the leadership of:

- Dr. M. Ashok: Principal and NSS Chairman-MRCE, who sanctioned the outreach and provided administrative guidance.
- Mr. G. Ratnakumar: NSS Programme Officer, who supervised the logistics, volunteer coordination, and the on-site distribution process.

Conclusion and Learning Experience

The visit to the disabled orphans' home was a profound learning experience for the NSS volunteers. It provided a direct opportunity to practice selfless service and understand the challenges faced by marginalized communities. The MRCE NSS Unit remains committed to maintaining a long-term relationship with the institution to provide ongoing support.
