The Visista 2K25, a Techno cultural fest was inaugurated with incredible gusto and zeal in the Institute at seminar hall. The celebration took place at 10.00 AM. with inaugural dance by Virtuoso: Harshini of CSE III Year student.

The Dignitaries Dr.M.Ashok–Principal, Chief Guest Prof. V.Kamakshi Prasad, Director-R&D, JNTUH-Hyderabad and Convener Dr. V.Narasimha Reddy, Dean-Students Affairs were invited on to the Dais. As a traditional part all the dignitaries participated in lighting the lamp and followed by prayer song.

Convener Dr. V. Narasinha Reddy began by extending their heartfelt gratitude to all participants, volunteers, faculty members, and sponsors for their invaluable contributions to the fest's resounding success. He highlighted the phenomenal turnout, noting that the fest witnessed a record-breaking participation of more than 1200 individuals across various technical and cultural events. He emphasized that this fest was designed to provide a stage for young minds to exhibit their technical prowess, artistic talents, and innovative ideas.

Principal Dr. M. Ashok Sir commenced with warm greetings extended to everyone present and emphasized the significance of the day. He thanks to the Chief Guest for accepting the invitation for being the chief guest. This event is not just about competition – it is about creating an environment where all of you can showcase your skills, whether it's in technology, arts, music, dance, or anything in between. It is the perfect platform for you to push the boundaries of your imagination, test your skills, and express your creativity in ways that you might not get the chance to in your daily routine.

Chief Guest Prof. V. Kamakshi Prasad Sir reiterated that technology and culture need not be separate entities. He explained the relation between Technical and Cultural from ancient days and emphasized that by combining the best of both worlds, we can craft a future that is not only technically advanced but also rich in tradition, creativity, and values. This fest will not only showcase your technical expertise but also your creative spirit, providing you with opportunities to learn, grow, and network with like-minded individuals from various disciplines.

After the dignitaries' addresses, the souvenir of the technical cultural fest VISISTA 2K25 was released by all the dignitaries, Deans and HoDs. Later H&S department News Letter was also released on the same Flat form.
