Introduction

The Joint AICTE–Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run is a powerful tribute to the courage, discipline, and selfless service of our Indian Armed Forces veterans. It is organized to remind us that the freedom we enjoy today is the result of countless sacrifices made by brave soldiers who stood guard at our borders, often away from their families, comfort, and safety.

By participating in the Joint AICTE–Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run, we reaffirm our commitment to the ideals of our Constitution and the spirit of patriotism. Let this run motivate us to be responsible citizens and to contribute positively to the progress and unity of our nation. Together, let us honor our veterans not just through words, but through actions that reflect respect, courage, and love for our country.”

we proudly come together for the Joint AICTE–Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run, an event that honors the courage, sacrifice, and service of our Indian veterans. This run is not about speed or competition, but about gratitude, unity, and national pride. Every step we take is a salute to the brave souls who protected our freedom and our nation's integrity. Let us run with discipline, respect, and patriotism, carrying forward the values they stood for. Jai Hind."

This patriotic run is not about speed or winning; it is about unity, respect, and national pride. Every step taken in this run symbolizes our gratitude to the veterans who dedicated their lives to protecting the sovereignty and integrity of our nation. It also inspires the youth to adopt values such as discipline, teamwork, physical fitness, and a strong sense of responsibility towards the country.

Speech By Dr. M Ashok, Principal of MRCE

The Joint AICTE–Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run was organized to honor the courage and sacrifices of Indian Armed Forces veterans and to promote patriotism, unity, and physical fitness among participants

It is a matter of great pride to host the Joint AICTE–Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run. This run is a sincere tribute to our brave veterans whose sacrifices have given us freedom and peace. Through this initiative, we honor their service and inspire our youth to value patriotism, discipline, and unity.

I appreciate AICTE, our veterans, and all participants for making this event meaningful. Let us carry the spirit of nationalism in every step we take.

Speech By Mr. G. Ratna Kumar, NSS Programme Officer

It is a proud moment to be part of the Joint AICTE Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run. This run is not just about fitness; it is a symbol of patriotism, unity, and respect for our brave veterans who have selflessly served the nation.

Through this event, we honor their sacrifices and remind ourselves of our responsibility as citizens to build a strong and healthy India. As an NSS Program Officer, I am proud to see our youth actively participating with enthusiasm and discipline, reflecting the spirit of “Not Me, But You.”

Let us run with pride, gratitude, and commitment towards our nation.

Thank you. Jai Hind

Speech By NSS Coordinator

Today, we are gathered here for a very meaningful and inspiring event—the Joint AICTE–Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run. This run is not just about physical fitness; it is a powerful symbol of patriotism, unity, and gratitude towards our brave veterans who have selflessly served our nation.

Our veterans are the true guardians of our freedom. Because of their courage, discipline, and sacrifices, we are able to live in peace and pursue our dreams. This patriotic run is a humble effort to honor their service and to remind the younger generation of the values of national pride, duty, and respect for the nation.

Conclusion:

The Joint AICTE–Veterans Indian National Patriotic Run was a meaningful and inspiring event that successfully instilled a sense of patriotism, unity, and respect for our brave veterans. The enthusiastic participation of students and staff reflected deep gratitude towards the sacrifices made by our armed forces. The event not only promoted physical fitness but also strengthened national pride and social responsibility among the participants.

“A nation’s strength lies in the courage of its defenders and the gratitude of its citizens.”
