PTA: Parent Teacher Association

- PTA stands for the Parent Teacher Association. PTA is a formal association of parents and educators created to support and reform the educational system and get parents interested in their child's academics. The primary goal of any PTA is to promote the well- being of the students.
- PTAs give parents and teachers a platform to collaborate on improving the teaching and everything else that affects child's physical and intellectual development in the early days.
- Parents and teachers can participate in PTA meetings to discuss and resolve any specific difficulties they may be having.

AIMS OF PTA

- To bring home and College in close contact.
- To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, society and community.
- To raise the standards of home life of the child.
- To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of the children and youth.
- To encourage parents to become more involved with children's.
- To provide support for events and others important occasions.

IMPORTANCE OF PTA

- It provides opportunity to open two ways communication for the welfare of the child.
- Provides great opportunity for the parents and teachers to develop a healthy relationship and holistic development of child.
- PTA is a great platform for parents and teachers to share insight and information for the development of child.
- It helps educators to know Childs weakness and strengths from parent's observation.
- Helps to know and to work for the modification of student's performance and to ensure best academics and non-academic performance of the child.

Main Motive of PTA

- Parents-Teacher Meetings serve as a vital bridge between parents and educators, fostering a collaborative environment focused on the student's academic journey.
- It offers a platform for open communication, enabling parents to gain insights into their child's progress, behavior and overall development.
- It's a chance for parents to understand the curriculum, teaching methods and any concerns regarding their child's education, ensuring a holistic approach to their academic success.
- Meetings play a significant role in building a strong partnership between parents and teachers, working together to support the student's educational experience.
- Academic achievements, Challenges and goals, both parents and educators can align their efforts to provide the necessary guidance and encouragement for the student's growth.
- The exchange of feedback and information during these meetings helps create a supportive network that nurtures the student's learning journey

WORKING OF P.T.A.

- Create a meeting schedule and communicate date and timing of the PTA meeting.
- Make the report cards and other content ready which are required in the PTA meeting.
- On meeting, begin by discussing positive aspect of the child's experiences in your class and also end up with student's strengths.
- Explain your goals for the child and how each student's progress is determined.
- Talk about Childs work. Discuss the child's performance in each subject.
- Listen to parents; it will help you understand what they want for their child.
- Close the meeting by setting goals for the child's future work.
- Suggest strategies for meeting those goals.

NEED OF PTA:

- PTA brings parents into the equation that provides a fresh insight on the improvements that are needed.
- It improves home-college communication by providing two way communication between parents and teachers.
- PTA is needed to rise funding which provides students with extra facilities.
- It is also required to improve parental relationships and teachers get to know about student's home life.
- It provides opportunity to talk about academic performance of each student.

ROLE OF TEACHER:

- To inform the parents regarding entire activities of the college and related activities from time to time. -To convey the examination result of students to their parents.
- If any fund is being collected for any kind of purpose in college, teacher should make parents aware regarding this subject.
- To discuss with parents about students and help in finding problems of students.
- If any student is absent for a long period of time, teacher should contact his parents and try know the reason behind it.
- Notifying parents if homework or project work assigned by the college to students is continuously incomplete.
- If school wants to take students for any excursion or trip for any purpose, teacher should inform parents regarding this subject.

ROLE OF PARENTS:

- Parents should continuously monitor children's activities.
- Parents should continuously discuss the student's home life with teacher.
- Parents should always get involved in PTA meetings.
- Parents should always motivate student to participate in college various activities.
- Behavior of the student in the college should be discussed with teacher.
- Getting the students examination results on time and consulting the teacher on this subject.
- Observing the students interest in education and college.
- Parent should be in constant contact with the teacher and should keep complete information about college and the students.
