"RAKSHA BANDHAN DAY"

MONDAY- 19-08-2024 @3:15PM TO 4:00 PM

‘RakshaBandhan’ is a festival which celebrates the bond of a brother and sister. ‘Rakhi’ is considered to be the symbol of love and unity, as per Hindu mythology. ‘Raksha’ translates to the protection and ‘Bandhan’ translates to bond.

This festival is celebrated in the Hindu religion. It is one of their most important festivals. In addition, sisters and brothers wait eagerly for it all round the year. People celebrate it with abundant zeal and enthusiasm in India.

Rakshabandhan is also known as “Rakhi Purnima”, as it falls on the full moon day of the month “shravana” in Hindu calendar. It is a cultural festival celebrated between brothers and sisters. On this day, all the sisters tie a sacred bracelet or the rakhi on their brothers' wrist as a symbol of protection from all evils. The brothers, in return, promise their sisters to be their protectors for their entire life and give a return gift.

Brothers and sisters of all ages celebrate RakshaBandhan. Furthermore, it strengthens the bond between them as well.

Principal address the gathering in celebrations of “Raksha Bandhan day”

KEY POINTS OF THE TALK

1. In the special gathering, principal sir addressed the need of the hour about the festival between sister and brother.
2. He also said that the festival is not only intended to be celebrated with our siblings but also to the entire family of MRCE.
3. He pointed that this festival is a symbol for unity and togetherness. And insisted everyone to protect or help others when in need.
4. As Rakhi is a symbol of bond, at last he insisted everyone who gathered there, to tie a raksha to symphonize that meaning “I’ll be with you”.

Message to the society

Raksha Bandhan 2024 at MRCE concluded with a vibrant and spirited celebration that brought together faculty from diverse backgrounds. The event showcased a blend of traditional rituals and modern camaraderie, with students enthusiastically participating in tying rakhis, exchanging gifts, and sharing festive treats.

The occasion fostered a sense of unity and strengthened the bonds between peers, transcending academic boundaries and promoting a culture of mutual respect and support.

As the day wrapped up, the celebration left an enduring impression of collective joy and solidarity, highlighting the significance of maintaining personal connections amidst the demands of academic life.
