Subject: Request for Permission to Organize “Startup journey -Engineers” in association with Savishkar India under MRCE EDC.

Respected Sir,

The Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) proposes to organize a “Startup journey -Engineers” in association with Savishkar India under MRCE EDC to inspire and guide our budding student entrepreneurs. The session aims to create awareness about startups, entrepreneurship, innovation, and real-life entrepreneurial journeys.

We kindly request your permission to conduct this event on campus on a convenient date as approved by you. Startup-Entrepreneur will be invited to interact with students and share their valuable experiences in building and managing startups.

This program will greatly benefit students interested in entrepreneurship and will support the institution’s initiatives in promoting innovation and startup culture.

We request you to kindly grant permission to proceed with the arrangements.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,
Dr. Sateesh Nagavarapu

4. Programme Schedule and Proceedings

4.1 Invocation and Welcome

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the dignitaries and participants. The Principal, Chief Guest, and other esteemed guests were formally invited to the dais.

4.2 Lighting of the Lamp and Prayer Song

The ceremonial lighting of the lamp symbolized the beginning of the programme and the pursuit of knowledge. This was followed by a prayer song, creating a positive and respectful atmosphere.

4.3 Address by Dr. Sateesh Nagavarapu, Dean – EDC

Dr. Sateesh Nagavarapu delivered an insightful talk on Startups and Entrepreneurship. He explained the importance of entrepreneurial thinking for engineers, the role of Educational Development Cells (EDC), and how students can leverage institutional support to develop startup ideas. Aim of EDC CELL in the college is “job creators, not job seekers”.

4.4 Address by Dr. Vivekanandhan VijayaRangan, Dean – IIC

Dr. Vivekanandhan highlighted the significance of innovation, incubation, and industry interaction. He emphasized the need for collaboration between academia and industry and encouraged students to utilize incubation and innovation centers for startup development. He elaborated on the facilities and mentoring support available through incubation centers and encouraged students to actively participate in innovation-driven activities.

4.5 President of EDC- Address by Dr. M. Ashok, Principal-MRCE

The Principal addressed the gathering and stressed the importance of startups in nation-building and employment generation. He motivated students to think beyond conventional career paths and take calculated risks in entrepreneurship.

- To inculcate entrepreneurial mindset among engineering students
- To create awareness about startups, innovation, and self-employment opportunities
- To bridge the gap between academic learning and industry/startup requirements
- To familiarize students with the startup ecosystem, incubation support, and government initiatives

4.6 Profile Reading of the Chief Guest

A detailed profile of Mr. Mohan Chary, the Chief Guest, was read by Rahul, highlighting his professional journey, achievements, and contributions to the startup ecosystem.

4.7 Address by Chief Guest- Mr. Mohan Chary

Mr. Mohan Chary delivered an elaborate and insightful address on the theme “Startup Journey for Engineers.” He shared his personal experiences from the startup ecosystem and explained how engineering students can successfully transition from being technical learners to innovative entrepreneurs.

He emphasized that identifying real-world problems and developing user-centric solutions are the foundation of any successful startup. The Chief Guest highlighted the importance of idea validation, market research, and customer feedback before launching a product. He also discussed common challenges faced by startups such as funding limitations, team formation, risk management, and sustaining growth in a competitive environment.

Mr. Mohan Chary encouraged students to develop multidisciplinary skills in addition to technical expertise, including communication skills, leadership qualities, and basic business knowledge. He stressed the importance of resilience, adaptability, and continuous learning in overcoming failures during the startup journey.

He also briefed the students about various government initiatives, incubation centers, and mentoring opportunities available to support startups, especially within the Telangana startup ecosystem. His address motivated students to view entrepreneurship as a viable and rewarding career option.

The session was highly interactive and informative, leaving a strong impact on the participants and inspiring them to explore innovation and entrepreneurship.

Mr. Mohan Chary shared his real-life startup experiences and challenges faced during his entrepreneurial journey. He discussed idea validation, team building, funding challenges, and the importance of perseverance. His speech was highly motivating and interactive.

4.8 Special Address by Ms. Sidhika Savishkar

Ms. Sidhika Savishkar delivered an inspiring talk on the Startup Ecosystem and Opportunities available for young engineers. She explained government initiatives, startup policies, and support mechanisms in Telangana, encouraging students to actively participate in the startup movement.
